Learn about Flip the Script, a sexual assault resistance course for women, regardless of sexual orientation and inclusive of transwomen. At this event, we’ll discuss the Flip the Script curriculum, the research it’s based on, where it fits into our comprehensive education model, and what options are available to students who don’t identify as women.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact OSMRC in advance at (319) 335-6200.
