Topic: Offender Accountability and Due Process

Tuesday, November 7th, 2017
12:00pm - 1:30pm
Nebraska Room (335 IMU)

Co-sponsors: Student Advisory Committee on Sexual Misconduct & UISG

Learn about how people who are found responsible for sexual misconduct, dating/domestic violence, or stalking are held accountable for their actions. At this event, we’ll discuss who is involved in the investigation and decision-making process and how due process of the accused is protected.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact OSMRC in advance at (319) 335-6200.
